

Riga at Glance

Being ready for the non-stop partying in Riga is a must!

TIPS:

- Take advantage of prices: cigarettes about 1£ a packet, lager starting from 0.50 p.
- Try Shooting Kalashnikov and blasting down Olympic Bobsleigh track
- Go to Jurmala for perfect recovery day at the beach

INFORMATION:

Riga is located on the coast of Baltic Sea. An internationally renowned city for its unique Art-nouveau architecture is considered one of the nicest cities in Europe. The locals are cheerful and welcoming to tourists, enjoying together vibrant Riga's non-stop nightlife. Some our groups say that Riga scores the top place in Europe for the proportion of stunning girls amongst locals.

By the way they speak English, what else do you need for the good atmosphere? The city offers excellent club scene and if you like gambling and casinos just bet your red or black. Win your soul-mate!

Prices are much cheaper than in U.K. A pint of beer starts from 50 p., restaurants provides you with the gourmand cuisine for very reasonable prices. Fusion and traditional cuisine are met everywhere and service is impeccable.

Jurmala beach — just outside of Riga is a well-known resort city, famous with its fine white sands, summer beach parties and it's only 10 miles away from Riga. By the way would you mind "girls-playing-beach-volley-topless"! This kind of attraction is completely free of charge, just join in! The average temperature during the summer is around 30°C.
